

HAGGERTY'S LUCK. WILL M' CARTON ESCAPE?

The Bridge-Jumper Gets the Police Court in a Quandary.

No One Will Identify Him, and His Admission Don't Count.

He is Hailed While the Fourth Ward is Searched.

John J. Haggerty, who says he jumped off the Brooklyn Bridge, is willing to make an affidavit to that effect, and is just as willing to take whatever punishment the law prescribes, yet the law is in a quandary what to do with him.

Every one knows that Haggerty did jump. There were hundreds who saw his body tumbling over and over in its descent, but no one saw his face, and, therefore, none can swear to his identity, and his own admission counts for nothing.

It was a weighty problem with which Justice Haggerty was confronted in the Tombs Police Court this morning. The two bridge officers, Brady and Farrell, who helped the man out of the water, were willing to swear to that, but nothing more.

It was in vain that the Justice ran his fingers through his hair. There was no way to solve the difficulty, save one, and that was to remand the man until some one can be found to make the necessary affidavit.

Digones's search for an honest man will be nothing to the Justice. The Fourth Ward will get to-night from the bridge police in order to find the important witness, that is, if such exists. The night's incarceration in the Tombs Police Court did not seem to hurt Haggerty in the least, and he looked none the worse for his jump. When first brought into the Tombs Court this morning.

One hour in the "pen," however, drove the perspiration from his face in a stream, and he began to let out into the cooler atmosphere of the courtroom. His first act was to engage Jimmy Oliver Keane to defend him, because the Justice had said that he was to be defended by the State.

Mr. The Hon. Justice, said Mr. Keane, "I do not think it fair," he continued, "to express any opinion as to the seriousness of this case, and I have been pronounced upon by the Commission."

Mr. Haggerty, after his interview with the Justice, said this morning, said that there was no reason why he should be in the Tombs. He said that he was a man of good character, and that he was not a criminal. He said that he was a man of good character, and that he was not a criminal.

He said that he was a man of good character, and that he was not a criminal. He said that he was a man of good character, and that he was not a criminal.

ELIZABETH'S NEWS

SHOCKED BY A LIVE WIRE. BLAZED FOR OVER SIX HOURS.

Lineman McCullery Fatally Injured in Jersey City.

Rendered Unconscious and Caught in a Network of Wires.

Edward McCullery, a lineman of the Western Union Telegraph Company, who lived in East Newark, met with a shocking accident in Jersey City today.

McCullery, with a number of other linemen, was sent to repair a wire which was strung along Newark avenue. He ascended a pole between Grove and Erie streets at about 10:30 A. M., and reached for a telegraph wire which had become entangled with the other wires.

As he did so he was seen to tremble violently and fall over the network of wires. He retained a hold with one arm about the telegraph pole.

Electric light wires are strung along the same poles on this avenue, and it was apparent that McCullery had reached the electric wires while trying to untangle the telegraph wire.

Much excitement prevailed in the neighborhood, and a crowd collected in the street and gazed up at the prostrate form in the network of wires. It was supposed that McCullery was dead.

Lineman Samuel Meyers, of the same company, ascended the pole and cut McCullery from the wires. He was found to be dead.

After much difficulty, the wires were cut, and the pole was lowered to the ground. McCullery's body was found to be badly burned by the electric current on the breast over the heart, on his forehead and on his left arm. One arm was almost severed. There is little chance for the man's recovery.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION.

Justice Bogert Killed and Engineer Harrington Badly Injured.

RIDGEWOOD, N. J., June 20.—The boiler of the engine at the Ridgewood Stone-crusher Works exploded this morning, instantly killing Justice Bogert, and seriously injuring Engineer John Harrington, of Paterson.

Ira Steel, a Hollander, employed at the works, stood three feet from Mr. Bogert, but did not receive a scratch.

Mr. Bogert was blown about fifty feet from the engine, and was placed on three feet from the Erie Railroad tracks. He was so badly cut about the head as to be hardly recognizable.

Mr. Bogert was one of the most prominent men in this neighborhood, having been in business for years. He was well known as a member of the Ridgewood Protective Association and as Police Justice.

PULLER-IN ARRIGNED.

Charged with Assaulting a Man Who Wouldn't Buy.

Policeman Devlin, of the Sixth Precinct, arraigned in the Tombs Court this morning Jacob Harris, who is charged with pulling in on Harry Cohen, the clothes dealer at Baxter street and Park Row.

Thomas Rowland, a bricklayer of Hudson City, complained that yesterday afternoon while passing down Park Row he was grabbed by the neck and pulled into Cohen's store. He refused to buy any clothes in spite of the forcible and earnest entreaties of the man.

Rowland says that they beat him and kicked him until the police came. He did not appear in court, and Policeman Devlin made a charge of assault on Harris, who is held in the Tombs.

THE MESSABA RANGE FIRES.

Virginia and Merritt, Minn., Wiped Out—No Loss of Life.

DULUTH, Minn., June 20.—Accurate news of the fires in the Messaba range shows the usual exaggeration in the first reports, but the money loss will be greater than estimated yesterday.

The first stories regarding Mountain Iron and Hibbard were untrue. At Hibbard only a few detached buildings were burned, and at Mountain Iron only six buildings.

The situation is as serious as reported. The entire business portion of the town is destroyed. About thirty houses are standing, and 400 are burned.

At Mountain Iron, only six buildings are standing, and the rest are burned. The situation is particularly unfortunate. Most of them are without shelter, clothing is scarce, and food is scarce.

The money loss from the fires will reach $1,500,000. There is no authenticated report of a loss of life.

HANGED HIMSELF IN THE BED.

Adam Hellmer Strangled Beside His Sleeping Child.

Business Reverses and a Dark Outlook Made Him Despondent.

Adam Hellmer, a cooper, fifty-one years old, committed suicide early today at his home, 41 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street, by strangling himself.

Hellmer came to this country twenty years ago, and by being thrifty and economical accumulated enough money to go on in business for himself.

In 1879 he took a fourteen years' lease of a piece of ground in Sixty-fifth street, at the corner of Eleventh avenue, where he erected a two-story brick building and occupied it as a cooperage.

His venture was not a success, and after a few years he was compelled to give it up and go to work for some one else.

He secured employment in Schwartzwalder's cooperage, and worked there until he was laid off by the owner, who was a great loss to his shoulders for some time.

It was not until three years ago that he succeeded in renting the place to Adam Hellmer, who was a cooper, and he was a great loss to his shoulders for some time.

Hellmer was married twelve years ago. He had a wife and two children. His wife was a cooper, and he was a great loss to his shoulders for some time.

LEPER'S BODY NOT YET REMOVED.

The body of Ong Moy Toy, the Chinese leper who died on Ong Moy Island, was still on the island this morning.

Mr. Hubbard, the physician who had Toy's case under supervision, will report in detail at the session of the Health Board to be held some time today.

DE FOREST IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

The Actor Arrested for Attempted Assault on Lawyer O'Reilly.

He Once Beat Ernest Hutchinson, Lydia Thompson's Agent.

Actor Charles De Forest, one of the American Fair, a yorkey team, is in trouble again. In Yorkville Court this morning he was arraigned for attempted felonious assault on Lawyer Daniel O'Reilly, of the Pulitzer Building.

De Forest was in the $500 bid for his good behavior, and in default of surety he was committed. Should he not obtain bail, De Forest will serve six months in the prison.

The prisoner acted strangely when arraigned. He is a smooth-faced, rather pleasant-looking fellow, not over twenty-six years old.

With a moderate wave of the hands he lowered at Judge McMahon and said:

"I am the King of England."

"Well, King, we'll hold you in $500," remarked the Judge.

"Fine hundred," repeated De Forest, suddenly tapping his forehead with his forefinger. "Ah! then that makes me the star boarder." They led the "star" away.

De Forest became involved in an argument last night with Roger Dolan, a well-known actor, who was in the saloon, at East Fourteenth street and Union square.

Police in the Forest left the saloon to settle matters on the sidewalk, and Lawyer O'Reilly passed out just after them.

When De Forest saw the lawyer he pulled out a big clasp-knife, and opening it rushed at O'Reilly, saying: "I'll cut the stomach out of you!"

The Smith and Policeman Cruise, of the East Twenty-second street station, disarmed De Forest, and he was locked up. He was taken to the Yorkville Court for breaking his wife's jaw, and in April, 1892, he was sentenced to six months in the prison.

NOT FAIR, SAYS RUSSELL SAGE. Thinks Manhattan Will Not Accept the Rapid Transit Plan. Russell Sage, in answer to a question whether the Manhattan will accept the Rapid Transit Commission proposition, said today:

"They have simply arrived at a basis where a common talk from now, but the Manhattan Company is not in a position to pay the money that the commission would exact. The fact of the matter is, we do not want to build. We are not willing to let the money go alone, and go on as we are doing."

Nothing definite will be settled until Mr. George Gould's return. He is expected to meet over it, but it will take, except in this small, oppose the payment of $150,000 a year.

Do not think it fair, equitable or just, that the Manhattan cannot afford to do it, that's all there is to it."

START FOR GRAY GABLES.

Mrs. Cleve and I Sought Leave Washington at 9:40 O'Clock.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Mrs. Cleveland, her daughter and household servants left on a special car at 9:40 A. M. for Buzzard's Bay.

The party occupied Mr. Thompson's private combination car, No. 90, at Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York. Mr. Cleveland did not go to the station with Mrs. Cleveland, but the change of cars will be made at Jersey City.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland drove to the White House late night from their country residence, and from there Mrs. Cleveland was driven to the station.

There was a small number of people at the depot when Mrs. Cleveland arrived at 9:30, and she immediately entered the car and appeared at one of the windows as the train was leaving. Mrs. Cleveland was accompanied by her daughter, who was seated in the train.

Mrs. Cleveland wore a dark blue albatross skirt and blue dotted lawn bodice.

HEAT THEIR FRENDS, NOW.

Striking Sugar-House Firemen Think New Men Can't Stand It.

Master Workman O'Reilly, who has it in his power to add a great deal of interest to the strike of the Williamsburg sugar-house firemen, says that he does not think any general strike will ensue, but that the men will fight it out alone for the present at least.

"This hot weather will be the friend of the boys," said Mr. O'Reilly. "The men are being pestered by a great deal of greenhorn firemen, but they will never be able to stand the heat. The men who have worked there for years will stand it, but the new men will not."

The men had their usual forenoon meeting today, and all hands remained in the Williamsburg sugar-house. The men who have worked there for years will stand it, but the new men will not.

It was supposed the guard of the city, which is six inches from the track, would not pass over a body.

Johns was arrested and committed to the care of the coroner.

DUEL WITH SHOTGUNS AVERTED.

World's Fair Commissioner Goes to Fight a Louisiana Editor.

NEW ORLEANS, June 20.—A few days ago Col. John C. Wickliffe, Louisiana Commissioner to the World's Fair, left Chicago for New Orleans, and it was supposed that he came here for the purpose of settling the dispute between the Louisiana Commissioner and the World's Fair.

It developed yesterday that his object was to fight a duel with a country editor.

Mildred Glaise, of the Hunkle Blade, a paper published in Lafayette, La., wrote something to which the Commissioner took exception, and a refusal to retract resulted in a challenge and the completion of arrangements for a duel.

The duel was to be fought with shotguns, at fifteen paces.

Sunday evening Col. Wickliffe arrived, and immediately left for Hunkle, accompanied by E. O'Sullivan, City Attorney, who acted as his friend. Yesterday the friends of both parties got together and an amicable settlement was the result.

"MILK CURE" INVESTIGATION.

Dr. Reinke's Flushing Establishment May Be Looked Into.

PUSHING, L. I., June 20.—Health Officer Allen, of this village, has decided to report the case of Dr. Reinke, who is conducting a "milk cure" establishment in the village, to the Queens County Medical Society.

It is alleged that Dr. Reinke is not a legally practicing physician, as he has no diploma.

Health Officer Allen said today that he could only compel Reinke to keep his establishment in good sanitary condition so as not to endanger the public health, but that it is probable the County Medical Society would take some action against Reinke with a view of having him investigated by the Grand Jury.

Sale of Vagrants Stopped.

MEXICO, Mo., June 20.—No more vagrants will be sold off the block in Missouri, the supreme court deciding yesterday that the law was unconstitutional. Vagrants have recently been sold to the highest bidder at this place, Marshall, Fayette and Boone counties. Joseph Thompson, the negro to have been sold in this city, and George Hardin, who was sold in Boone release.

Two Supposed Rabbis Drove Killed. It was reported at Police Headquarters this morning that Policemen Rogan and Scott were killed by a mad dog last night in front of 305 East Thirty-second street. A couple of hours later Policemen Conboy killed another supposed rabid dog on 685 Second avenue.
